

Poisonous Substances

There are many items that are known to be poisonous to puppies and dogs. Make sure these items are locked up so your puppy can not get into them. For more information on poisonous substances, or for an item that is not listed here, consult your veterinary team.

- Antifreeze
- Anticoagulants
- Aspirin
- Bleach
- Boric Acid
- Brake Fluid
- Carburetor Cleaner
- Chocolate
- Dandruff Shampoo
- Deodorants
- Deodorizers
- Disinfectants
- Drain Cleaner
- Dry-cleaning fluid
- Dye
- Furniture Polish
- Gasoline
- Hair Dye
- Herbicides
- Insecticides
- Kerosene
- Laxatives
- Lead
- Lye
- Phenol
- Matches
- Metal Polish
- Mothballs
- Nail Polish and Remover
- Paint
- Paint Remover
- Rat Poison
- Pine-Oil Disinfectants
- Rubbing Alcohol
- Snow Melting Products
- Shoe Polish
- Snail or Bug Bait
- Suntan Oil with Cocoa Butter
- Tar
- Turpentine
- Xylitol-Sweetened Products
- Windshield-Washer Fluid

Toxic Foods & Plants

Symptoms

Vomiting

Diarrhea

Difficulty Breathing

Abnormal Urine (colour, odour, frequency)

Salivation

Seizures

Weakness

If your dog should ingest harmful substances, contact a veterinarian or poison control centre immediately.

Toxic Foods

- Alcohol
- Apricots
- Avocados
- Balsam Pears
- Bones (of any type)
- Chocolate
- Coffee
- Fatty Foods
- Grapes or raisins
- Garlic (Chinese chive or anything from the garlic (Allium) family)
- Japanese Plums
- Moldy or Spoiled Food
- Mushrooms (if also toxic to humans)
- Nuts
- Onions (including onion powder)
- Pear and Peach Pits
- Raw Bread (of any type)
- Raw Meat (ex. fish, chicken, etc.)
- Tea
- Xylitol Sweetened Products (i.e. chewing gum)

Toxic Plants

- Azaleas
- Dieffenbachia
- Lilies
- Rhododendrons
- Rhubarb
- Spinach
- Tomato and Potato leaves and stems
- Tulip and Daffodil bulbs
- Mistletoe
- Mushrooms (if also toxic to humans)
- Wild cherry
- Marijuana

